ep. 28

Who are you?

<Export:Kreyul_Arroyol_Emoi_Koshew:

Do you have stickers to a bunch of random places?
Kreyul was here.
Just a few favorite places that Kissae took me to.
In case I want to revisit.

Kreyul can only travel to his five most recently visited places. Unless he leaves a "tagged"

art to a place for a revisit.

A "tagged" sticker expires
a month after they're drawn.

Here is a baba tea ta thank yau far helping me, Kreyul
Taking drinks from strangers; This is haw I wake up in a tub af ice, kidneys missing.

I'll politely accept but not drink.

We walked for another nine minutes in awkward silence, sipping on our drinks, unsure of what to say to each other.

Oh merde*, I forgot to not drink the boba...
It's really good though.

*crap

I should break the ice...
no pun intended.

So...
what did Phirre whisper before you

...
Argh.

Mm...

Phirre said, "Your eyebrows are not on fleek at all."

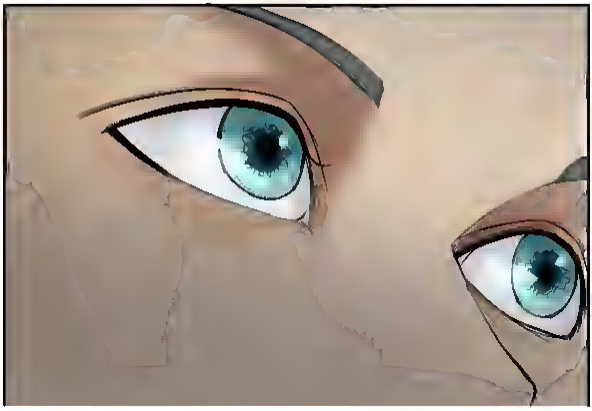
We rode the rest of the ferry in gops of omusing owkword silence.

I tried to osk questions to keep o conversotion going... but Emoi wosn't lying obout the being sociolly inept port.

Most my questions were responded with o simple "Yes" or "No." Nothing much to follow up.

Even "How old are you?"
Her: Yes.

Me:....



Wow, you actually have written about Kissae misinforming me af dying in five days.

Plus the nude art madel and her stalker story.

Why/ How do

you write these??
Random stories keep streaming in my head, non-stop, until I write them down.
There are more stories on my laptop about random other people too.
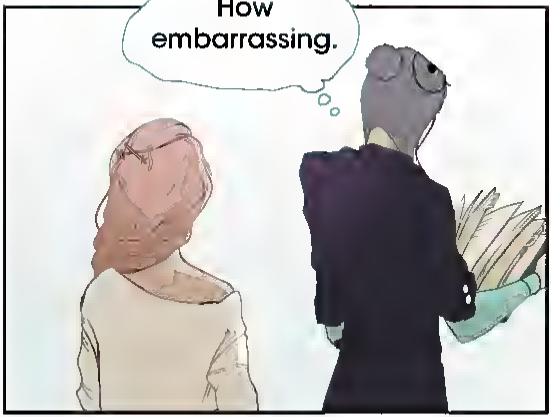
I can't believe you're real and sitting in my room. Being all... non-fiction. This is weird.

Yeah, I'm definitely made of flesh and non-fiction certified.
But wow! These are pretty accurate. Minus a few missing details and some minor exaggerations.

She even wrote about my childhood?

How embarrassing.



OH MY

STA

You're friggin' real!!!

I'm sorry I didn't have time to properly greet you the first time we met in Nightmare Factory!!!

Your tales entertained me through a lot of boredom, loneliness and rough times.

You're like my 2nd most favorite choracter out of all the people I've written about!

I friggin' adore you (plotonically), Kreyul.

...I'm fangirling so hard but too afraid to say anything.
KREYUL'S CHILDHOOD
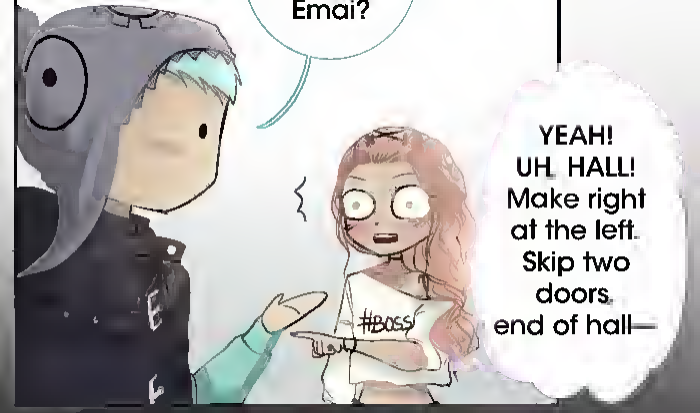
#BOSS
Curse my shyness.
Pardon the rude interruption of...whatever that's going on over there...
May I use your restroom,



Her direction made no sense so I ended up wandering the halls a bit.

Her study room
is pristine,

But the corridor is blanketed in a thin layer of dust.

The rest of the quiet house seems almost uninhabited. Hung on the walls along the halls are these...

Inept: Having or showing no skill; clumsy.
Ferry: A boat or ship for conveying passengers and goods, especially over a relatively short distance and as a regular service.
